Dear «Ref_Person_FirstName»,

Welcome to the Living in Australia study for Wave 19

We would like to thank you and your household for your ongoing support and participation in the HILDA study. The study continues to grow in its importance both in Australia and globally, and so the time you spend with our interviewers each year is valued immensely by all involved in the study.

This year we return to you with our focus on family relationships, fertility and retirement. Your participation in the study this year will help us understand how these areas of life impact you and how we may best prepare for the challenges these changes may bring.

As always, the information you provide is completely confidential and will be treated with the strictest of privacy.

Our newsletter for 2019

Enclosed you will find the latest newsletter, in which you will find:

- A letter from Professor Michaela Benzeval, Director of the Understanding Society study
- Information about the study, your confidentiality and your privacy
- Examples of how HILDA data has been used
- Information on what is new this year, including a special note on your $40 cash gift following your participation.

You are important to us

I encourage you to visit the project website www.livinginaustralia.org for more information about the study. Should you wish to contact the project team for any reason you can call 1800 656 670 or email HILDA@roymorgan.com.
