Dear «Ref_Person_FirstName»,

Welcome to the Living in Australia study for Wave 18.

We are so appreciative for the time that you and your household set aside each year for the Living in Australia study. This vital study is growing in importance and distinction, and continues to be a powerful source of information for evidence-based policy and decision making - because of you, your commitment and your support.

This year our study will focus on wealth, assets, and superannuation; facets that affect the life of every Australian household. Each year we experience new cost of living demands that force us, individually, to reevaluate our priorities and it has never been more important that researchers, academics and policy makers understand how these new demands impact us all.

Our newsletter for 2018

Within the newsletter you will find:

- A special letter from Jenny Gordon of the Productivity Commission;
